

Funding Community-Based Efforts to Address the Social Determinants of Health

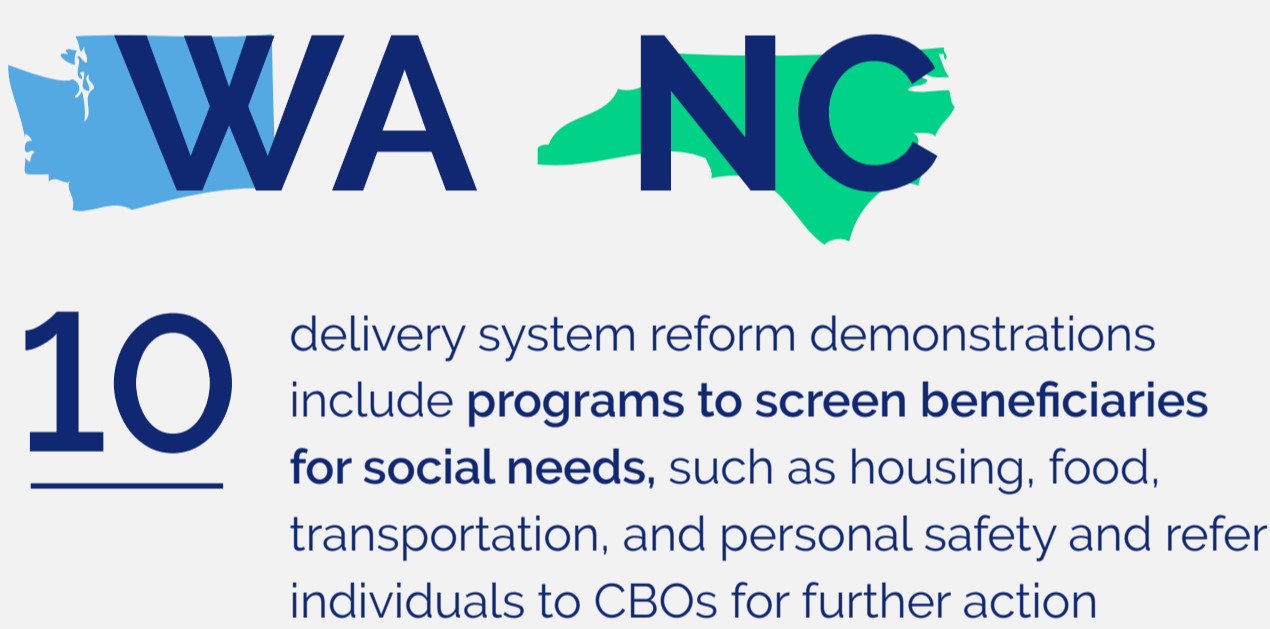

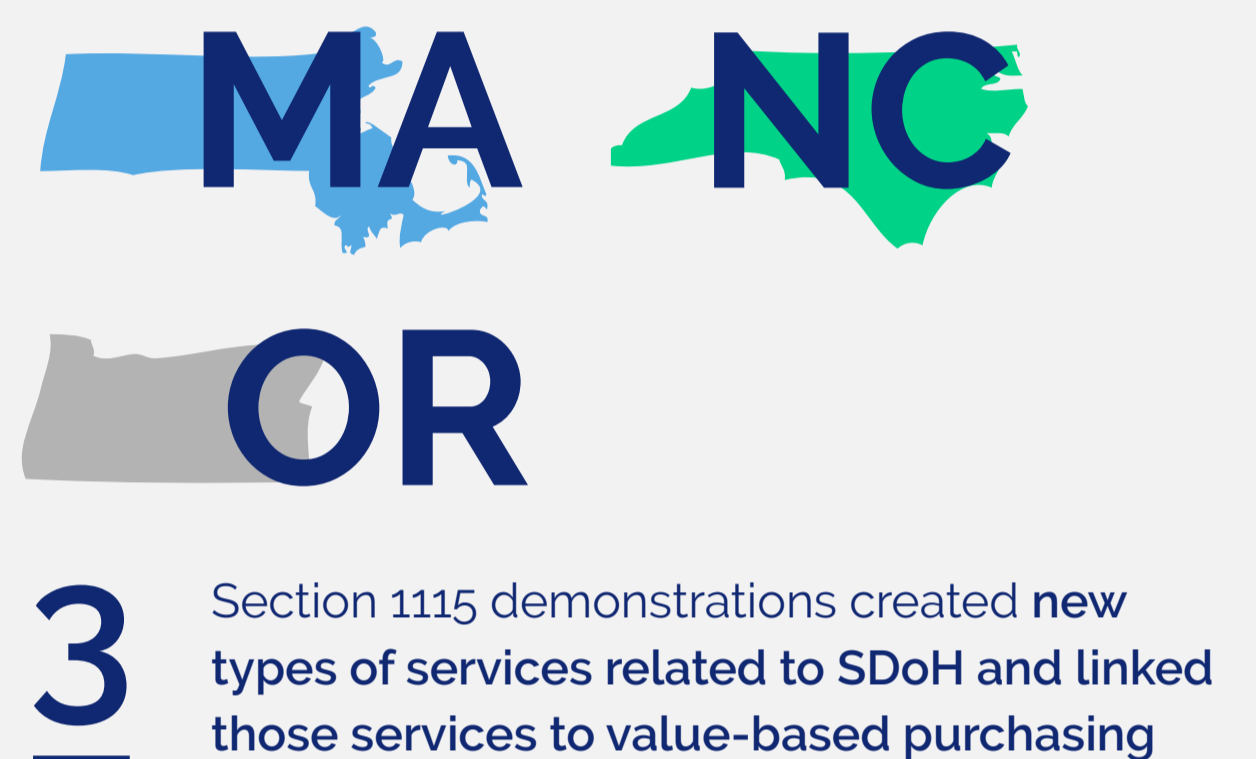

Medicare Advantage (MA) plans are integrating benefits designed to help members overcome SDoH

Percentage of MA plans offering new supplemental benefits in 2019

Source: <https://www.aarp.org/content/dam/aarp/ppi/2019/07/medicare-supplement-series-two.doi.10.26419-2Fppi.00075.002.pdf>
 Source: https://www.urban.org/sites/default/files/publication/101067/sdh\_medicare\_advantage\_1.pdf

Many states are implementing Medicaid programs that specifically require collaboration with CBOs

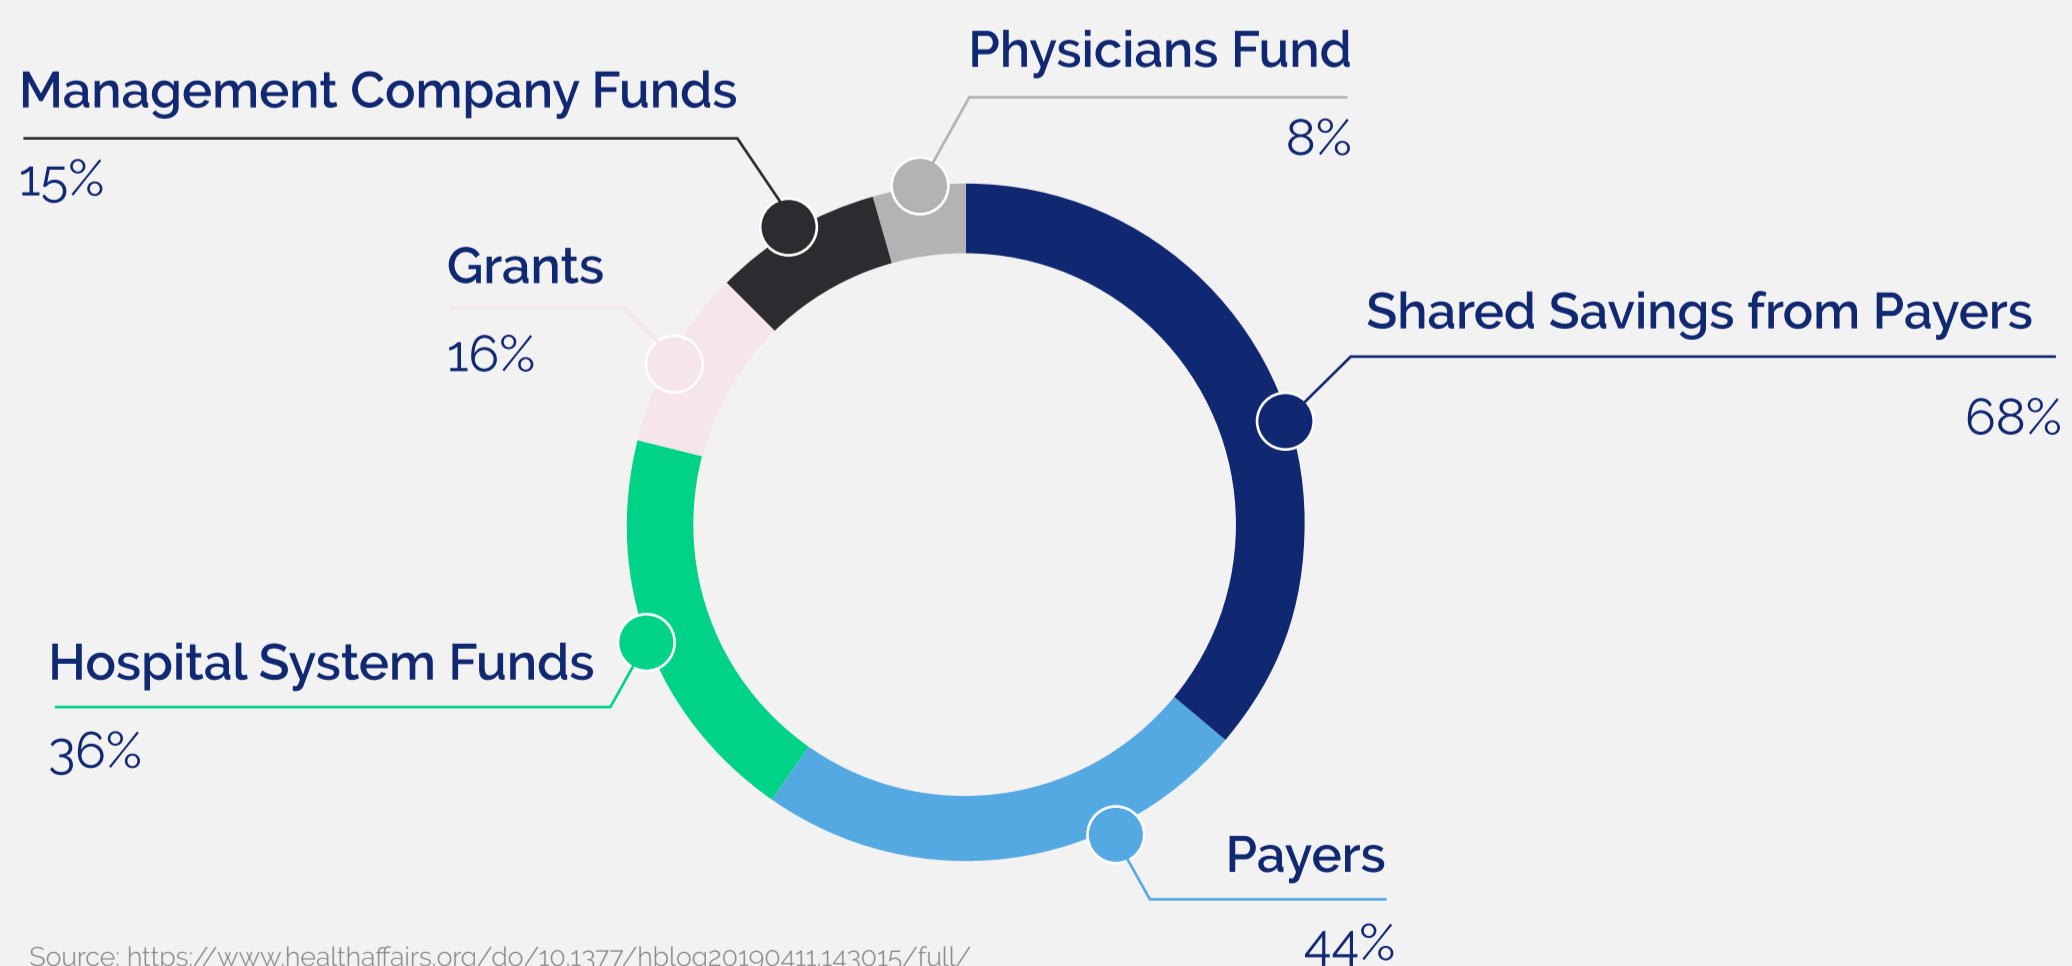

Source: <https://www.chcs.org/resource/addressing-social-determinants-of-health-via-medicaid-managed-care-contracts-and-section-1115-demonstrations/>

Accountable care organizations (ACOs) are making SDoH a focus of their value-based care initiatives

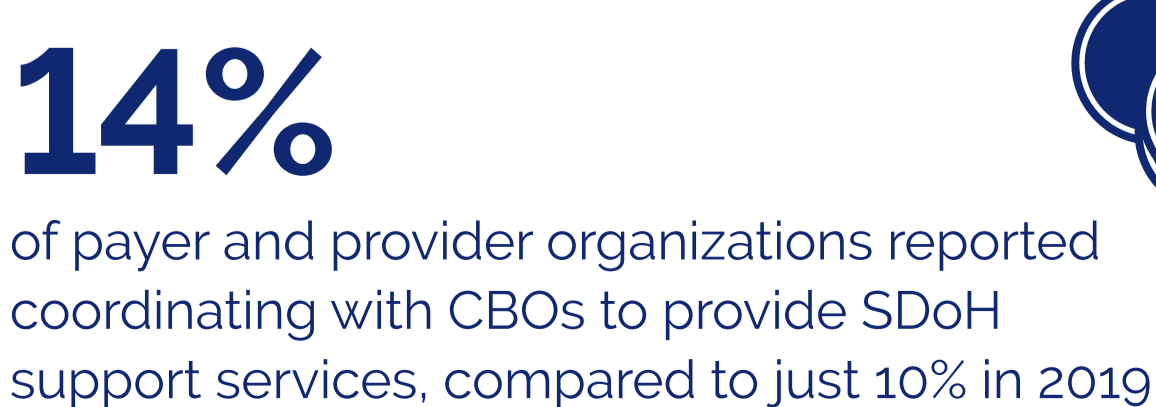

Shared savings payments are a principal source of program funding

Source: <https://www.healthaffairs.org/doi/10.1377/hblog20190411143015/full/>

Commercial health plans are also investing in direct partnerships with CBOs

Source: <https://inspire.changehealthcare.com/2020-Industry-Pulse-Results>